Treasure Seekers News

March 8, 2009

Welcome to March and the first promise of spring, 2009!

Camp Crop A Lot was a resounding success and is now a wonderful memory! As we prepare for spring at Treasured Memories Scrapbooking, those memories fuel an 'energy high' that is sure to last into 2010! Plans for Camp 2010 are underway!

Meanwhile, new product from CHA Winter, continues to arrive in the store. Every day is a bit like Christmas, as we excitedly open the boxes packed with surprises.

It's a bit like shopping for Christmas presents in September. By the time the gifts are opened, even the shopper can't remember what's in them!

We can hardly wait to share it all with you, so here are some sneak peeks of what you'll find when you visit.

Daisy Bucket

- Little Black Dress - black and white, double sided, with that wonderful texture and the trademark 4 square papers.
- My Little Monsters - for all your children's moments of mischief!
- Nantucket - at the ocean beaches

Basic Grey

- Marrakech - tangerines, blues and turquoise
- Porcelain - shades of coral, pink, and green like fine china
