

Treasure Seekers Newsletter

April 15, 2009

Hi,

Finally, spring has arrived! Easter is a time of new life, of renewal and hope. The budding trees, the blossoming flowers and the arrival of lambs on the farm, foals in the barn, and ducklings in the pond assure that the circle of life continues on.

We are experiencing new arrivals at Treasured Memories, as well!

Prima Flowers

Prima flowers have returned in two colour groups, brights and earthy pastels. Sold by weight, these beautiful reminders of spring add just the right touch to your pages, cards and projects.

Spellbinders Dies

The rare and hard to find Spellbinders Labels 3 dies have arrived straight from the manufacturer. Combined with Core'dinations papers, Spellbinder dies create highly defined shapes and embossed ridges that can be sanded and distressed.

Cornish Heritage Farms

Most exciting this week, is the arrival of our newest stamp line, Cornish Heritage Farm rubber stamps. Made in the USA, Cornish Heritage Farms stamps are deeply etched, highly detailed, cushion mounted and available in many different styles. Now in store, a selection from some of the many collections, including Bird Watching, Thistle, Get Well Soon and Burlap. Use them with your favourite acrylic stamp blocks. www.cornishheritagefarms.com.

Speaking of cards, have you caught the buzz about a new bug on the loose? The Scor-Pal Bug of course! Colour coordinated in teal and grey, this little bug runs up the grooves of your Scor-Pal tablet, creating embossed lines of dots on your cardstock. The lattice grid pattern looks amazing!

We are proud to be one of the first retailers to offer the Scor Bug - now in stock.
